

BE TRANSFORMED

Discovering Biblical Solutions to Life's Problems

Group Covenant

To encourage a high level of trust, love, and transparency in this group, I, _____ agree with the other members of my group to do the following:

- I will make attendance at each group session a priority for the next nine weeks. Should any other activity conflict with our session I will remember this covenant and make the necessary sacrifice.
- I will dedicate time each day to finish each daily assignment so that they are complete before the group meets and I will hand in my completed homework sheet each week.
- I will keep confidential all information group members share. I will not share matters from the group with any other person or mention the information as a prayer concern. I understand that breaking confidentiality of the group will result in being asked to leave the group.
- I will focus all that is being discovered on how it applies to me and I will resist the urge to comment on how it may apply to other members of the group.
- I will be honest (when appropriate) about my thoughts and feelings as I participate in the group.
- I will be patient with other group members as we allow the Lord to work in each of our lives. I will not give advice or pressure other group members to do what I think is best.
- I will inform my group leader of any physical or emotional problems that might arise which prohibit my participation in the group.

NOTE: There are exceptions to this covenant in regard to privacy; we are required to report to the authorities any confession of committing a crime against a child, or statements indicating that you are a danger to yourself and/or others.
